

YOU ARE INVITED TO BECOME A MEMBER OF THE INDIANA PLANNING ASSOCIATION

Membership in the Indiana Planning Association (IPA) affords the opportunity to associate with other planners, officials, citizens, educators, students, and allied professionals who share a common commitment to planning through National and/or Chapter affiliation.

The Indiana Planning Association is the only planning organization in Indiana devoted to serving its members. IPA is committed to advancing the recognition and quality of planning throughout the state.

Whatever your interest, IPA will assist you in becoming more effective by drawing on its resources and activities.

INDIANA PLANNING ASSOCIATION MEMBERS ENJOY THESE BENEFITS...

- Scanning Planning – the quarterly magazine
News and information relevant to Indiana planners and planning.
Articles and features of special local and national interest.
Notices of upcoming meetings, conferences, and continuing education offerings.
News of National APA and AICP activities.
- Planning Update – timely newsletter
Timely alerts from throughout the State on newsworthy items, regional updates and Legislative issues.
- IPA Resource Directory
Your personal resource guide to key and useful information.
- Conferences
One fall and one spring conference dedicated to skill development.
One regional conference held every two years with the Michigan, Ohio, and Kentucky APA chapters.

To Join, Simply Fill Out The Membership Application